

Alain Mabanckou presents Noirs en France

NOIRS EN FRANCE

You are invited to an exceptional event: a presentation of Noirs en France (2022) by award-winning author and UCLA Professor Alain Mabanckou.

Alain Mabanckou will present his documentary and take questions from the audience. This presentation will be followed by a screening of Noirs en France.

The event will start with a presentation and Q&A with Alain Mabanckou (45 minutes, in French). It will be followed by the screening of Noirs en France (1h45, in French with English subtitles).

The event is free but pre-registration is required.
To register, please scan the QR code or follow this link:
go.osu.edu/mabanckou

This event is sponsored by the Center of Excellence at The Ohio State University, the Department of French and Italian at The Ohio State University, Villa Albertine-Chicago, and the Cultural Services of the French Embassy in the United States.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

● Sébastien Micke

About Alain Mabanckou:

Alain Mabanckou is a novelist, journalist, poet, and academic. A French citizen born in the Republic of the Congo, he currently teaches literature and creative writing in the Department of French & Francophone Studies and African Studies Center at UCLA. Known for his novels and non-fiction writing depicting the experience of contemporary Africa and the African diaspora in France, Alain Mabanckou is among the most recognized Franco-African writers in France in contemporary literature.

Thursday, October 27th
4:00pm (Columbus)/10:00pm (Paris)/ 1:00pm
(Los Angeles)
Zoom and Mendenhall 100
(The Ohio State University)

FRENCH EMBASSY
IN THE UNITED STATES

CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE

Department of French and Italian