Center of Excellence
Lecture Series:
Black Seine, White Paris

Tuesday, September 19th at 4:00 PM
Independence Hall 100

Kévi Donat is a Martinique-born independent scholar and podcaster (Le Tchip, Paris Noir). He created guided tours focusing on the Black history of Paris, following the steps of icons such as James Baldwin, Paulette Nardal, Frantz Fanon, Josephine Baker or Aimé Césaire

This talk is co-sponsored by the Center of Excellence, Department of French & Italian, OSU Newark, and the CLLC.
