This four-week program during May will introduce students to the Italian city of Bologna, home to Europe's oldest university and positioned at the crossroads of Italy. Participants will explore the identity of Bologna and begin to understand how the modern city was shaped through the Medieval, Colonial and Renaissance periods. Short stories, detective novels, plays and movies that engage with this urban space will be studied, and students will also have the chance to explore Florence, Ferrara and Milan.

Application cycles begin early. Deadlines are typically six to nine months prior to program departure. For upcoming deadlines, program contact details, information session dates and more, check out the program brochure at go.osu.edu/ItalianCity.
