

Advising Guide for Ph.D. students in French (literature, culture, and/or film) entering with an approved M.A.

PART A: PRE-CANDIDACY COURSES

The majority of courses in the Ph.D. program in French fall under the following categories:

- I. Literature and Culture
 - 1. Middle Ages and Renaissance
 - 2. Modernity and Enlightenment
 - 3. Revolution and Beyond
 - 4. Francophone Studies
- II. Film and Visual Culture
- III. Linguistics and Second Language Acquisition
- IV. Theory and Practice

Instructions for filling out the tables below:

The first two courses listed below are required; check the blank box next to each upon its completion. In the second table are listed the categories of courses described above; students entering with an M.A. must take at least one course in at least 5 of the first 6 categories (I1, I2, I3, I4, II, and III) and at least 1 in category IV (8601). Fill in the blank boxes next to each category with the course numbers of courses taken in that category. Beyond these minimum requirements, students must take at least 1 additional course (2 total) in their major area and at least 1 course total in each of their two minor areas. Indicate in the left margin (with an “M” and two “m”s) the major and minor areas.
